Introduction

A message from the NYSDOH

The New York State Department of Health (NYSDOH) has contracted with Prometric to develop and administer the New York State (NYS) Nursing Home Nurse Aide Competency Examination and manage the NYS Nursing Home Nurse Aide Registry (NAR).

All individuals performing nurse aide duties in a nursing home on a full-time, part-time or contractual basis must meet minimum training and competency requirements in accordance with state and federal regulations and be listed in good standing on the NAR.

The majority of nurse aides on the registry become certified by successfully completing a NYS-approved nursing home nurse aide training program and passing the Competency Examination. The exam consists of two parts: 1) a Clinical Skills exam (practical portion); and 2) a Written (oral) exam.

This handbook contains general program information and instructions regarding the procedures nurse aide candidates must complete to become certified as a nurse aide and be listed on the NAR. It also gives instructions for certified nurse aides who are currently listed on the NAR and need to complete recertification.

At a glance

Follow these main steps if you are interested in becoming a certified nurse aide.

To become a NYS nurse aide and listed on the NAR

- 1 Complete a NYS-approved training program.
- 2 Review this handbook thoroughly to understand exam application, registration process, and scheduling provisions.
- 3 Complete the New York State Nursing Home Nurse Aide Registry (NYS NAR) application form (see Page 32) and send it to Prometric at the address below.
The application form is also online at www.prometric.com/NurseAide/NY.
- 4 If required, take the scheduled exams, bringing the necessary identification to the exam center. (See Page 14.)
Once you pass both exams, you will receive your Nurse Aide Certificate and wallet card, and you will be listed on the NAR. (See Page 16.)
- 5 If applicable, complete the recertification or reciprocity process within the appropriate timeframe. (See Page 19.)

Criminal history record check

The NYSDOH requires that all nursing homes and home care agencies conduct fingerprint-based criminal history record checks (CHRC) for all new unlicensed individuals employed or used to provide direct care to or supervision of residents or clients. Nursing home certified nurse aides (CNAs) and facility-paid nurse aide trainees are required to submit to a CHRC by the nursing home.

Fingerprint submission

The CHRC consists of a 10-point rolled fingerprint submitted to the Division of Criminal Justice Services (DCJS) for a state criminal background check and to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) for a comparison against the national database.

There is no charge to you for the cost of the fingerprinting or the fingerprinting check. The nursing home will have your fingerprints taken and submit the fingerprints and any applicable fees to the NYSDOH. The NYSDOH will submit your fingerprints to the DCJS for its and the FBI review.

The NYSDOH will receive and review the results of the fingerprint search and provide a letter to you and your employer about your suitability for employment. You have the opportunity to review and explain the information on the criminal history record report and may withdraw your application for employment without prejudice prior to the nursing home's decision on employment and, upon such withdrawal, any criminal history records obtained pursuant to the CHRC will be destroyed.

Conviction categories

There are specific categories of convictions that will affect your ability to work in a nursing home or home care agency. These may be found in Department of Health Regulations Title 10, NYCRR Part 402. If you have been convicted of one of the following offenses, employment in a nursing home or home care agency providing resident care will be disapproved.

- Any Class A felony defined in the Penal Law;
- Any Class B or C felony occurring within the 10 years preceding the date of the criminal history check;
- Any Class D or E felony listed in Article 120, Article 130, Article 155, Article 160, Article 178 or Article 220 of the Penal Law occurring within the 10 years preceding the criminal history check;
- Any crime defined in Sections 260.32 or 260.34 of the Penal Law occurring within the 10 years preceding the criminal history check; or
- Any comparable offense in any other jurisdiction.

In addition to these specific categories, there are other criminal convictions or open charges that may affect your ability to work. For crimes that do not fall within the criteria above, the NYSDOH has the discretion to disapprove you for work.

In all cases, you will be notified by the NYSDOH if you are not considered suitable for employment and provided with an opportunity to submit evidence of your rehabilitation.

Understanding certification routes

New York State (NYS) has seven routes for establishing your eligibility to take a certification exam to become a nurse aide. Read the route descriptions on the following pages. Select the route that best fits your situation.

For all routes, if you need to submit documentation that does not have the same name as your current legal name, you must also submit documentation of the name change.

Important Once you determine which certification route you should use, be sure to select (mark) that route on the application form on Page 32.

Certification route 1 - new nurse aides

Select this certification route if you have never been a nurse aide.

To complete route 1, you must:

- Complete a NYS-approved nursing home nurse aide training program within the last 24 months (your training program coordinator must complete Section 3 of the application form).
- Complete the application form found on Page 32. If you are currently employed by a NYS nursing home, your employer must complete Section 2 of the application form.
- Submit the completed application form and the required exam fee to your training program coordinator or employer. If you are employed in a nursing home, your employer must pay your exam fee. If you are not able to take your exam at your nursing home or training program, mail your application and fees to Prometric. You will be scheduled at a regional exam site.
- Pass the Clinical Skills exam and the Written or Oral exam within two years of completing your training. You will have three attempts to pass the Clinical Skills exam and three attempts to pass the Written or Oral exam.

Certification route 2 - reciprocity/CNA from another state

Select this certification route if you are a nurse aide listed in another state's Registry and would like to become certified in New York.

To complete route 2, you must:

- Provide a copy of your current out-of-state nurse aide certificate(s).
- If the name on your nurse aide certificate is different from your current name, submit proof of name change (i.e., marriage license).
- Pay the appropriate fees.

If the state in which you are currently certified does not provide expiration dates on its registry, you must provide proof of employment. This must be at least on facility letterhead from your employer. It must indicate that you have worked seven hours for pay in the past 24 months. The letter must state that you have performed nurse aide duties and must be signed by your supervisor.

Certification route 3 - graduate nurses

Select this certification route if you are a U.S.-trained graduate nurse. You will not be required to complete further training but you must take the exam.

 Albany, NY 12237

The items that must be submitted in order to determine your eligibility to take an exam under route 3 include:

Scheduling your exams

The New York State (NYS) Nursing Home Nurse Aide Competency Examination consists of two separate parts: the Clinical Skills exam and the Written/Oral exam. The Clinical Skills exam is a hands-on skills exam that requires you to demonstrate five skills performed in the care of nursing home residents; and the Written exam consists of 60 multiple-choice questions that evaluate your overall knowledge and skills in providing safe and competent care. If you are testing for the first time, you must register for both exams.

Important You must pass both exams within two years from the date you completed your Nurse Aide training program.

This section gives you information on:

- Completing your application.
- Exam locations.
- Fee information.
- Rescheduling procedures.
- Special exam considerations.

Completing the application form

Before you can take an exam, you must submit the following to Prometric:

- 1 The New York State Nursing Home Nurse Aide Registry (NYS NAR) application form. This form can be found on Page 32 of this handbook, online at www.prometric.com/NurseAide/NY from your training program or from the nursing home where you are employed. You may also apply using the online application that can also be found on the website.
- 2 The appropriate fee(s). You are responsible for paying any fees unless a facility or other entity pays the fees on your behalf.

Important Complete all forms clearly and accurately. Incomplete, incorrect, illegible and/or unsigned applications will be returned, which will delay the scheduling of your examination.

Exam locations

There are two location options for taking your exam.

In-facility exams

In-facility means exams are taken at the same place where you received your training. The training may have taken place in a nursing home or training program facility. If you are taking your exam In-facility, a representative from the nursing home or training program will schedule your exam appointment and notify you of the scheduled time and date. You will receive an admission letter confirming your exam date. You do not need this letter to take your exam. If you are working at a nursing home, the facility is required to pay for your exam fees.

Regional exam sites

If you cannot take your exam at a nursing home or training program location, you may take your exam at a regional exam site. If you are taking your exam at a regional exam site, send your application form and exam fees to Prometric. Be sure to enter the city where you would like to take your exam on the application form. Prometric will schedule your exam at the regional exam site you list on your application form.

Admission letter. Once your application is processed, you will receive an admission letter. The letter has the time, date and location of your exam. Prometric will send your admission letter to your email address. If you are taking an exam at a regional exam site, you must bring this letter with you when you take your exam.

If the scheduled exam date will not work for you, contact Prometric immediately to have your exam rescheduled. You may reschedule up to five full business days before your scheduled exam date. Fees are forfeited for appointments cancelled or rescheduled within five business days of the exam date and you will be required to pay the exam fees again. Prometric will schedule you in the next available time slot, but cannot guarantee an exam within 20 business days if you choose to reschedule.

Status Emails

In 2014, you will begin to receive a status email from Prometric when we receive your application and schedule you for your exam. These notices will also inform you if your application was incomplete.

Important You will be asked to play the role of the resident for another candidate taking the clinical skills exam.

New York State Nursing Home Nurse Aide Competency Examinations are administered at regional exam sites.

There is a current listing of regional test sites found on www.prometric.com/nurseaide/ny. Please use this list to select from to take your exam at a regional test site.

Important Regional exam center locations are subject to change. For an up-to-date list of regional exam facilities go to www.prometric.com/NurseAide/NY or call 800.805.9128.

Fee information

If you become employed at a nursing home as a nurse aide or get an offer to work in a nursing home as a nurse aide within one year of the completion of your training or exam date, your fees will be repaid by NYS for part of the training and/or exam fee that you paid. You should give copies of the receipts for these fees to the nursing home when you are offered a job or on your first day of work. The nursing home will process the reimbursement paperwork on your behalf. Payment is made by the state to the nursing home that will reimburse you. The state will determine the amount you will be reimbursed.

If you are paying your own exam fees, you must send a money order or certified check, made payable to the “New York State Commissioner of Health, NYNA.” Fees must be included with the application form. Personal checks and cash are not accepted. Special exam considerations

ADA accommodation. Reasonable exam accommodations are provided to allow candidates with documented disabilities recognized under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) an opportunity to demonstrate their skills and knowledge.

If you will be taking an exam at a regional exam site and you require special accommodations under the ADA, the request form must be submitted with your application form. The Nurse Aide ADA Accommodations Request Packet is available on www.prometric.com/nurseaide/ny. This packet must be included with your testing application. Thirty days' advance notice is required for all exam arrangements. There is no additional charge for these accommodations.

If you are requesting an ADA accommodation for a reader, you will be provided an oral version of the exam administered using a prerecorded CD and CD player. The Nurse Aide Evaluator will administer this version of the exam unless there is documentation that proves the CD is not a reasonable accommodation. The Reading Comprehension section of the exam is not administered to ADA candidates.

Additional exam considerations. You are not allowed to bring anything with you into the exam room except your ID and pencils. If you have a condition that requires you to bring other items into the exam room, such as an inhaler, food, drink or pillows, you must also make this request at the time you submit your application form. These items will not be allowed in the exam room without prior approval from Prometric.

English as a Second Language (ESL) accommodation. The NYS Nursing Home Nurse Aide Competency Examination is offered only in English. Translators and translation dictionaries are not permitted during the exam administration. ESL candidates should review the Oral exam information on Page 13 to determine if this is an alternative.

Overview of the exams

This section contains:

- General information about the Clinical Skills exam.
- An overview of the Written exam.
- How to take an Oral exam.

General information about Clinical Skills exam

The Clinical Skills exam is a timed exam. The skills that you will be asked to perform are assigned by computer at the time you are scheduled for testing. For your exam, you will be scored on five skills. While performing three assigned skills, you will also be scored on two additional skills - Handwashing and Indirect Care. Indirect Care is care related to resident rights and preferences, communication with the resident, resident safety, comfort and needs, and infection control.

The amount of time you will have to take your exam is based on the skills you are asked to perform. The times for this exam vary since some skills take longer to perform than other skills. When you are given the instructions for the skills on your exam, you will be told how much time you have to complete the exam. You will be reminded how much time you have just before you begin your exam. The time allowed for the Clinical Skills exam ranges from 31 minutes to 40 minutes based on the skills you are asked to perform.

To pass the Clinical Skills exam, you must pass all five skills. To pass a skill, you are not required to perform the skill perfectly, but you are required to demonstrate competency of the skill. Each skill has a list of checkpoints. The Nurse Aide Evaluator (NAE) will watch you perform the skill and compare your performance to the checkpoints for the skill. A Clinical Skills Checklist is available online at www.prometric.com/NurseAide/NY.

The rules for the Clinical Skills exam allow you to make corrections while performing a skill. You must tell the NAE that you are making a correction during the skill and you must actually perform the correction. Once you have completed a skill, you may not go back to correct a previous skill. There are times when a safety issue will be addressed by the NAE. If a safety issue has occurred, you will not be able to make a correction.

The NAE who administers the Clinical Skills exam is not permitted to teach, coach, or discuss your results or performance with you.

While you are waiting to take the Clinical Skills exam, you will be given a copy of the General Instructions for the Nurse Aide Clinical Skills Test to read. These instructions describe the basic rules for the exam and other candidate considerations. A copy of this document, along with samples of the forms you will use to document measurements during your exam, are available for review at www.prometric.com/NurseAide/NY.

Resident actor

You should expect to act as the resident for other candidates who are taking the Clinical Skills exam. The person acting as the resident is playing the part of a resident who is not confused, is able to speak and follow directions, and is able to move when told to do so. Specific instructions explaining this will be read before the exam begins. The chart below lists the skills that may be performed on you when playing the role of the resident.

Skills to be performed
Assisting you to walk	Measuring your breathing
Brushing your teeth	Moving you from the bed into a wheelchair
Changing bed linens while you are in bed	Moving your arm or leg through simple exercises
Cleaning and shaping your nails	Placing you on a bedpan (clothes on)
Feeding you a small snack	Turning you on your side in bed
Measuring your pulse	Washing and applying lotion to one foot

When you are playing the role of the resident, you must be able to participate in the skills identified above. If you are unable to participate in any of the skills, speak with the NAE administering the test when you check-in at the test site.

Procedures and rules

When the NAE brings you and the resident actor into the exam room, you will both be read a set of instructions. You will also be given an overview of the exam room and you will have an opportunity to look around at the equipment and supplies. Next, you will be given a card listing the three skills you will perform for your exam. Each skill includes a set of instructions. You must perform the skills in the order listed on the instruction card. You are allowed to look at the instruction card at any time during your exam.

Use of gloves

Standard precautions require that you wear gloves for the following skills: bedpan, catheter care, measuring contents of urinary drainage bag, mouth care (brushing teeth and denture) and perineal care. You will not be marked incorrect for applying gloves when they are not required. However, you will be rated on the correct removal of the gloves.

Stopping the Clinical Skills exam

During the Clinical Skills exam, the NAE will stop the exam if the resident actor is in immediate danger. The exam may also be stopped if you fail to progress in the performance of the skill.

An overview of the Written exam

The Written exam consists of 60 multiple-choice questions. You will have 90 minutes to complete the exam. The content outline for the Written (and Oral) exam is located on Page 21. The questions on the exam will cover the information listed in the content outline. Questions are in multiple-choice format with only one correct answer.

Practice Exam

A Nurse Aide Practice Exam is available online at www.prometric.com/nurseaide. The practice exam will list rational statements and reference listings for further study. The practice exam is created in the same format and uses the same question types as the actual certification exam. The practice exam will also help you become familiar with the computer-based testing process.

During the practice exam, you will get immediate feedback to correct and incorrect responses, as well as overall feedback at the end of the session. If you like, you may print out the final practice exam results to help you with further test preparation.

The Written Nurse Aide Practice Exam contains 50 questions. The fee for each practice exam is $10. A super pack of all 3 practice exams is available for $25 and is payable online using a credit or debit card at the time you purchase the practice exam.

The Clinical Skills Readiness Test allows you to prepare for your skills exam by testing your knowledge of the skills you will need to perform on the day of testing. There are 6 tests available with 3-4 skills in each. The fee for each Clinical Skill Readiness test is $5 to $7 with a super pack of all skills available for $25. The fee is payable online using a credit or debit card at the time you purchase the practice exam.

Sample test

A Nurse Aide Certification Sample Test is located on Page 25 of this bulletin. The sample test is intended to help you become familiar with the exam format. How well you do on this sample test does not predict your results on your actual exam.

Hints for taking the Written exam

The following hints may be useful to keep in mind when taking your exam:

- Read each question carefully and find the response that best answers the question; there are no “trick questions” on the exam.
- If you are not sure of an answer, do not spend a great deal of time on it. It may be better to select the best answer or mark it for review later.
- Answer every question; you will not receive credit for any question left blank.
- Be sure to completely fill the appropriate bubble on your answer sheet and completely erase any incorrect marks. Answers recorded in the exam book but not on the answer sheet will be counted as incorrect.
- Double-check your answer sheet(s) before turning it in to ensure that you have provided only one answer to each question. Questions with more than one answer marked will be considered incorrect.

Taking the Written exam in Oral format

The Written exam can be taken in an oral format. The oral format may be helpful if you have a reading disability, marginal reading skills or if you consider English your second language. The Reading Assessment on Page 30 may help you decide if you should consider taking the Oral exam. If you would like to take the Oral exam, you should select this option on the application form. This request cannot be made on the day of testing.

If you take the Oral exam, you will be given a CD player and a headset. You will hear the exam questions read to you from a prerecorded CD. You are allowed to replay any question. You will be provided with a printed exam booklet and will answer questions on the same answer sheet used by candidates taking the Written exam.

The Oral exam has an additional Reading Comprehension section. The Reading Comprehension section of the Oral exam is given separately and consists of 16 questions. You will be allowed an additional 30 minutes to complete this section. You must pass the Reading Comprehension section in order to pass the Oral exam. Each time you take the Oral exam, you will be required to take the Reading Comprehension section, even if it was passed in a previous attempt. The results of the Reading Comprehension section will be reported on the official score report as pass or fail.

If you fail the Reading Comprehension section of the Oral exam, you may want to ask your nursing home or training program about literacy programs offered in your community. These programs may help you improve your reading skills.

You have three opportunities to pass the Written and/or Oral exam. For example, if you take the Written exam and fail, and then decide to take the oral administration of the Written exam, you will have only two opportunities to pass the Oral exam since one attempt was already made with the Written exam.

Taking your exam

You should arrive 30 minutes before your scheduled exam appointment. This allows time for you to sign in and for staff to verify your identification.

This section contains information about:

- What identification is required.
- What to bring to your exam.
- Exam site regulations.
- Your exam results.
- Appeals process.

Required identification

You must present two valid pieces of identification (ID) before you may take an exam. The name on both identifications must exactly match the name you used to register for the exam and that is on your Admission Letter. Photocopies of either identification will not be accepted.

- 1 The first piece of identification must be current (non-expired), contain both a current photo and your signature, and be:
 - A government-issued (e.g., driver's license, state-issued identification card, alien registration card, military identification or passport); or
 - An official employment ID (if it has your photo and signature) from the facility where you are working and where you will be taking your examination; or
 - An official school ID (if it has your photo and signature) from the school where you are currently enrolled and where you will be taking your examination.
- 2 The second piece of identification must be a signature ID. The name must match the name on your first piece of identification. Examples of acceptable signature IDs include:
 - Social Security card;
 - Credit card (with signature on back);
 - Library card (with signature on back); or
 - Gym card (with signature on back).

Your identification will be held by the NAE while you are taking the Written or Oral exam and will not be returned to you until your examination booklet (with CD for Oral exam) and answer sheet have been returned.

Important If you do not provide correct identification at the time of the exam, you will not be allowed to take the exam. You will be required to pay the entire exam fee again in order to be scheduled for another exam date.

Exam personnel have the right to refuse admission to any candidate when the identification presented:

- Appears to have been falsified or tampered with.
- Has a signature on the primary form of ID that is not clear and easily read.

Nurse Aide Registry

The New York State (NYS) Nursing Home Nurse Aide Registry (NAR) contains the names of nurse aides who hold a Certified Nurse Aide (CNA) certificate in New York.

This section contains information about:

- Registry verification.
- Recertification.
- Lapsed certificate.
- Change of address or name.

Registry verification

Before an individual can work as a nurse aide in a nursing home, the facility must contact the NAR and verify the person has met the state's certification requirements and that the individual is listed as active and in good standing on the NAR. Verification may be done by calling 800.321.6443 or online at www.prometric.com/NurseAide/NY.

Important You are responsible for keeping your address and name information up-to-date in the NAR.

Documentation of sustained findings and/or convictions for resident abuse, neglect, mistreatment or misappropriation of resident property is reported to the NAR. These findings and/or convictions make the nurse aide ineligible to work in any capacity in a nursing home. Findings and convictions are public information and are disclosed to anyone who calls to verify a nurse aide's standing on the Registry.

Recertification

Your NYS Nursing Home Nurse Aide Certificate is valid for 24 months. It will expire two years from the last day of the month in which you were certified. For example, if you were certified on January 15, 2010, your certification will expire on January 31, 2012. You will be mailed a reminder notice approximately 45 days before your certification expiration. The notice will go to your home address currently listed on the Registry. Contact your current or most recent employer about your recertification.

To be eligible to recertify, you must have worked for pay as a nurse aide in a NYS nursing home or at a NYS-approved nurse aide employer for at least seven hours within the previous 24-month period. All NYS licensed Residential Health Care Facilities (RHCFs) are approved as nurse aide employers. If you currently work for a NYS nursing home or a NYS-approved nurse aide employer, your employer must recertify you and pay the recertification fee. This includes any nurse aide employed by and paid by a staffing or employment agency who physically worked in the nursing home as a nurse aide but did not work for the nursing home.

Important If you have not worked for pay for a minimum of seven hours during the previous 24 consecutive months, or your health care employer is not approved by the NYSDOH, your certificate cannot be renewed. You will be required to retest or retrain and retest using one of the certification routes described on Page 3.

If you are currently working as a nurse aide in a NYS RHCf or for another NYS-approved nurse aide employer, you will be recertified for 24 months from the last day of the month in which your current certification expires.

If you are not currently working, you will be recertified for 24 months beginning from the last day you worked as a NYS nurse aide at the NYS-approved nurse aide employer. The last work date is reported on the NYS NAR recertification form by your last nurse aide employer. If you are eligible to be recertified, the nursing home where you were last employed is responsible for completing and submitting your NYS NAR recertification form and paying the recertification fee.

When your NYS NAR recertification form is processed and you are determined eligible for renewal, a new certificate and wallet card showing your new expiration date will be mailed to you. The NYS NAR will be updated with your current information.

Your new expiration date will be the last day of the month that is 24 months (two years) from either the date your recertification form is processed by the Registry or the date you last worked as a NYS nurse aide for a NYS-approved nurse aide employer, whichever is earlier.

The following chart explains recertification dates based on the example of a CNA whose certification expires on January 31, 2012.

CNA worked	Nursing home recertifies in	New certification expires
in a NYS nursing home during January 2012	January 2012	January 31, 2014
in a NYS nursing home during January 2012	December 2011	December 31, 2013
last as a nurse aide on August 10, 2010	December 2011	August 31, 2012

Hold on your certificate. If the NYSDOH has placed a hold on your certificate, your renewal form will not be processed until the hold is removed. Any nurse aide denied renewal based on a hold should contact the NYSDOH directly at profcred@health.state.ny.us for more information.

Lapsed certificate

If you have not worked for pay as a nurse aide in a NYS nursing home (or for a NYSDOH-approved nurse aide employer) for a minimum of seven hours during the last 24 months, your certification is considered lapsed and cannot be renewed.

If your certification has lapsed, you should review the “Understanding routes” section beginning on Page 3 of this handbook to see what you can do to regain your certification.

Change of address or name

It is your responsibility to keep your information correct and current with the NYS Nursing Home Nurse Aide Registry.

Address change

If your address changes after you have been certified, you must send a completed Service Request form to Prometric. The form is available online at www.prometric.com/NurseAide/NY. There is no charge for updating your address with the NAR.

Name change

If your name changes after you have been certified as a NYS Nurse Aide, you must send legal documentation of the name change. Mail your legal documentation and Service Request form to Prometric. The form is available online at www.prometric.com/NurseAide/NY. Acceptable forms of legal documentation include a copy of your marriage certificate, divorce decree or legal name change decree.

Important There is no charge for updating your name or address with the NYS NAR. However, there is a $15 fee to receive a new certificate reflecting your name change (see Page 18 for more information).
